Foreign Heads of Communism in Unity Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) President Johnson says he is very proud of the work done in his administration by many Republicans and he thinks the GOP has a vital role to play in the American system.

In an exclusive, copyright interview today in U.S. News & World Report, the President was asked how he viewed the Republican party's present role. He replied:

"I certainly feel that the Republican party has an important and vital role to fill in our system and in the making of our national policies."

"I am very proud of the contributions made to the administration by so many outstanding good Republicans and good Americans, such as Secretaries McNamara and Dillon (Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon), CIA Director John McCone, Special Assistant for National Security Affairs McGeorge Bundy, and distinguished Republican business-community leaders such as John McCloy and Robert Anderson."

"I was very proud during the campaign to have the active support of four former members of the Cabinet under President Eisenhower."

"I anticipate that some of those Republicans who supported us during the campaign will resume an active role in leading the Republican party on a constructive course to maintain the bipartisanship in government which is so essential to America's success in all fields."

Asked how he interpreted the vote in last Tuesday's election, he said, "I believe the mandate is for responsible, constructive and progressive programs to meet the problems of America's agenda."

As for his wide margin of victory, he said, "I believe it will strengthen the country's hand. . . . America's role and influence for peace and freedom in the times to come will be strengthened by the unity and agreement demonstrated by our elections."

Drivers Test Flunked by Rotarians

Although it was not an official test as given by the Arkansas State Police, questions were very similar and not many Rotarians passed it when the grades were revealed at Friday noon meeting of the Rotary club. The test was conducted by Rotarian Vic Cobb with the assistance of Sgt. Guy Downing of the Arkansas State Police.

Vic stated at the beginning that this was an educational program designed to show Rotarians that they did not know as much about present day driving regulations as they should.

Prior to the test Dr. Lester Sitzes auctioned a beautiful tapestry received by the Club recently from a Rotary Club in Taiwan, China. The purchaser was Garland Medders, and the money received from the sale will be used to purchase some local manufactured goods that will be sent to the Taiwan Club for their auction, proceeds from which will be used for some form of Community development in that country.

Guests at the meeting were Frank Pfeiffer of Dallas, Harold Hendrix and Dorsey McRae of Hope.

$10 Letter Prize for October

Mrs. Evelyn Haggard, 722 N. Main St., Hope, today was awarded the $10 prize for the best letter to the editor published by Hope Star during October. Her letter, "All About Dogs," was printed Oct. 29, and drew an editor's note and replies from other subscribers.

The newspaper's check was mailed to Mrs. Haggard today.

Youth Is Shot on Deer Stand

A pellet from a shotgun charge hit Eugene Oller, 14, Fulton, in the chest this morning as he was climbing down a tree from a deer stand this morning near Fulton. Most of the load hit the tree, but one did lodge against a rib, and surgery will be required to dislodge it. He is not considered in serious condition, Deputy Sheriff Herbert Girfin said today.

District Meet of Cancer Society

Mrs. James Robertson, Hempstead County Crusade Chairman, and Mrs. Olin Purcell, Memorial Fund Chairman, attended a District Meeting of the Arkansas Division of the American Cancer Society, held Thursday, November 5 at the Diamond Cafe.

Following the meeting, Mrs. Robertson announced that Dr. W. J. Lee and Mrs. J. T. Knighton, both of Stamps, were nominated for the Medical and Lay Directors to represent District 12 on the Division Board of the Society. District 12 includes Howard, Hempstead, Lafayette, Little River, and Sevier counties. The annual meeting of the Arkansas Division of the Society will be held in Little Rock early in December and the final election of Directors will take place at that time.

The Cancer Society's plans and programs for the County Units for the coming year were outlined and discussed. This included plans for the Cancer Facts For Farmers project that has been developed by the Cancer Society and the Arkansas Council of Home Demonstration Clubs. The slogan "A Naggling Wife 'May Save Your Life' has been chosen for this project, and a program for Home Demonstration Clubs throughout Hempstead County is being planned for the very near future. This program will consist of films and a qualified speaker on the subject of cancer.

Non-farm Jobs at High Level

ATLANTA (AP) — The Labor Department said that the number of nonfarm jobs in the Southwest, including Arkansas, was at a record high this year for the month of September.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said new employment records for September were set in Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas. Oklahoma is also in the region. The employment count for the region was 4,682,500.

In Arkansas, the bureau said average weekly earnings had risen to $73.08, up from $71.58 the preceding September. The national average is $103.94, and the regional weekly average is $98.33, it said.

The Oddest Things You Discover on Opening Up Your Mail, So Says Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

It has been found that about one of every 2,000 children is born with teeth. Since they are so loosely misplaced, some doctors take the teeth out to keep the child from swallowing them.

I have just been informed that a flea can lift 140 times its own weight, and if you were as comparatively strong as a flea, you could hoist a 10-ton truck.

The human eye at its ordinary strength can detect four million shades of color, science has found. It also has been found that men are about 20 times as likely as women to suffer from color blindness.

The unsleeping eye of science also has discovered that neither the tapeworm nor the hookworm has a heart.

The largest infant ever born in this world is the calf of a blue whale. At birth, the whale calf measures up to 25 feet long and weighs several tons. In contrast, a polar bear cub weighs about a pound upon emergence from its mother, and can be cuddled in a woman's hand.

Pro-Western Premier Named Japan Leader

By KENNETH ISHII

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's new Premier Eisaku Sato completed formation of his Cabinet tonight. Official sources said he retained all the ministers in the government of his predecessor, ailing Hayato Ikeda.

The new government is expected to carry on Ikeda's firmly pro-Western foreign policy.

Sato, 63, an economic expert, formed his Cabinet a few hours after Parliament elected him to succeed Ikeda. After four years in office, Ikeda resigned because of a throat tumor. Both he and Sato are members of the ruling Liberal Democratic party.

In the voting in the lower house of the Diet, Sato received 283 votes, Socialist Jotaro Kawakami got 137, Suehiro Nishio of the Democratic-Socialists got 23, and Sanzo Nosaka, a Communist, got 4.

The 250-member upper house, voting simultaneously, gave Sato 146 votes, a majority. Sato's election was assured earlier today when the Liberal Democrats nominated him for the post after a prolonged struggle within the party. State Minister Ichiro Kono, and former Foreign Minister Aichiichi Fujiyama also were contenders.

Ikeda, who announced his retirement Oct. 25, settled the contest with a note from his hospital bed recommending Sato.

Sato takes office at a time when, following Red China's atomic blast, pressures are mounting for a new look at relations with Peking. Japan does not have diplomatic relations with Red China but would like to trade more with its Communist neighbor.

Joke Turned Into a Real One

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) — "This is a stickup. Give me the money," said the young man to the man behind the desk of the Rancho Lanes Bowling Center.

C. C. Brinton, the man behind the desk, chuckled.

"Don't laugh. I'm serious," the man said, keeping his right hand in his coat pocket.

Brinton, a part-time employee who also is a Salt Lake City policeman, whipped out his pistol, held his man at bay and called police.

"I was just joking. Put that gun away and give me an alley," the gunman pleaded.

The joke was on Robert Vincent Harrell, 22, however. He was booked into city jail for attempted robbery.

Influential Republicans See Richard Nixon as Man to Bail Out the Ailing GOP Party

EDITOR'S NOTE — In this Associated Press survey, Republican leaders across the land give their views on rebuilding the party and look ahead to GOP chances in the 1966 and 1968 elections.

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Many influential Republicans across the country expect Richard M. Nixon to play a leading role in rebuilding the GOP for what most of them think will be a strong 1966 comeback.

Nixon, the 1960 presidential nominee, and GOP Govs. George Romney of Michigan, William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania and Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York were most frequently mentioned as prospective leaders of this comeback in an Associated Press survey.

The survey, reaching GOP officials in all sections of the nation, disclosed little enthusiasm for another presidential race by defeated Sen. Barry Goldwater. There were many suggestions that he yield control of the party machinery as the result of the shattering impact of President Johnson's landslide.

Nixon who campaigned actively for Goldwater, was mentioned by Republicans from all sections of the country as a man to be reckoned with in the next four years.

Oklahoma State Chairman John W. Tyler, commented: "I think we're going to see an awful lot of Mr. Nixon real quick. I think he's the only man who can pull the party together."

South Carolina State Chairman J. Drake Edens Jr. said Nixon "is the man you have to watch in the party." Robert L. Pierce, Wisconsin national committeeman, observed that "Nixon looks good." In party fortunes at this point, Wisconsin State Chairman Talbot Peterson said he thinks the reins of national party control should be handed to somebody like Nixon.

"I heard more good things about Nixon this time and there are some who will never be convinced that things wouldn't have been different if he had been the nominee again," Peterson said.

Benjamin F. Dillingham, Hawaii national committeeman, said the party should regroup around "someone who will represent the true consensus of the conservatives." He named Nixon and Scranton as possibilities.

Minnesota National Committeeman George Elzeil forecast that Nixon will play a strong future party role.

Next to Nixon, Romney, who won re-election handsily while Johnson was carrying Michigan, was most often mentioned as the future party leader.

Gov. John H. Chafee of Rhode Island, also re-elected against the Democratic trend, called Romney and Scranton "fine leaders" who should play a part in rebuilding the party. Robert Corber, Virginia state chairman, predicted that "someone in the image of Gov. Romney" will emerge on top.

Rep. Stanley R. Tupper, R-Maine, named Rockefeller, Romney, Scranton, Chafee, Henry Cabot Lodge and Nixon as potential leaders.

Gov. Henry Bellmon of Oklahoma listed Gov. John A. Love of Colorado, Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon, Scranton and Nixon as among those who should lead in party rebuilding.

The Republicans were almost unanimous in their belief that the GOP can recover from its massive defeat and make a strong showing in 1966 and 1968.

GOP State Chairman Craig Truax of Pennsylvania said the coalition of Democratic forces now headed by Johnson "should not be formidable if the Republican party offers progressive alternatives to Democratic dogma."

"The American people inherently move away from the type of monolithic power structure they now see in Washington and will support the Republican party with renewed vigor," he said.

Few agreed with Montana National Committeeman James E. Murphy "that we'll be back in four years with our own landslide." J. Herman Saxon, North Carolina Republican state chairman, said "unless something happens to President Johnson, I wouldn't think we have much of a chance at the White House for eight years."

Colorado's Gov. Love said that "any thought that the Republican party is dead is ridiculous."

"We will pick up governorships, congressional seats and other offices in 1966 and in 1968 we will have a GOP president," he said.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie of Idaho, chairman of the GOP conference of governors, said Republicans will have to concentrate on winning governorships two years from now in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Nebraska, North Dakota, Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho California and Oregon.

Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., said that with Johnson at the head of the ticket it is going to be difficult for Republicans to win in his state.

"If Hubert Humphrey were president there is no question in my mind that the Republicans would carry Texas," he said.

John Gromala, president of California Young Republicans and a strong Goldwater man, blamed the election defeat on party members who didn't support the national ticket.

Dr. Thomas Brigham, acting Alabama state chairman, said Republicans won in his state through a strong grassroots organization he predicted will spread throughout the South.

Sen. Strom Thurmond, South Carolina Democrat who turned Republican to support Goldwater, predicts "the pendulum will swing back."

Republicans Fussing Among Themselves

By JOE F. KANE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michigan Gov. George Romney has criticized Richard M. Nixon for his criticism of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

And to fellow Republicans who have been criticizing defeated GOP presidential candidate Barry Goldwater and calling for new party leadership, Romney had this to say as he continued to ricochet around the GOP:

"I think that Sen. Goldwater has demonstrated in the past his concern about the Republican party as a whole and I think it's premature to assume it's going to be necessary to find some way around Sen. Goldwater."

Romney, who had declined to endorse Goldwater's candidacy, was a big winner last Tuesday in his bid for re-election as governor — a victory that has stirred some speculation that he might be a future Republican presidential nominee possibility.

He repeated in a WJR radio interview in Detroit Sunday that he took his Goldwater stand because of "basic principle differences" with the Arizona.

Inclusion of Negroes on Jury Stands

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court let stand unchanged today a decision that purposeful inclusion of Negroes in a list from which grand jurors were drawn violated the constitutional rights of a Negro later convicted of raping a white woman.

The case involved Woodman J. Collins, Negro of Iowa, La., who was sentenced to execution on conviction of rape of Gladys E. Vatis of Texas City, Tex.

Testimony was given that Collins smashed the window of the car of Mrs. Vatis, drove her to a field near Lake Charles, La., and left her in a ditch after the attack.

Louisiana's Supreme Court upheld the conviction in February 1962, and the U. S. Supreme Court upheld the conviction in February 1962, and the U. S. Supreme court on Oct. 8, 1962, refused to review the trial of Collins.

His counsel then began a habeas corpus proceedings in lower federal courts and won a ruling by the U. S. Circuit Court in New Orleans that Collins had been denied equal protection of law because of purposeful inclusion of Negroes on the grand jury list. Seven white persons and five Negroes constituted the grand jury in the case.

British Rule at Stake on Steel Issue

By COLIN FROST

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson and his Labor government pitched into their first battle for survival today against a Conservative assault on steel nationalization.

Wilson's slender majority was expected to hold up in the first House of Commons vote and again Tuesday when the House votes on a Conservative motion of no confidence in Wilson's entire program. Defeat on either would force the government to resign and call a new election.

The Labor party won the Oct. 15 general election with a margin of only five Commons seats over the Conservative and Liberal opposition. This was temporarily cut to four Sunday night when Laborite Brian O'Malley entered a hospital for an emergency appendectomy.

Two other ailing Laborites announced they would be on hand for the vote. Frank McLeavy, 65, said he would come from his hospital bed, and Sir Geoffrey de Grelles, 59, said he would hobble in carpet slippers to ease a foot injury from a car accident.

Most interest will center on the votes of two right-wing Labor members, Woodrow Wyatt and Desmond Donnelly. They have suggested Wilson should ditch steel nationalization or water it down to get the support of the nine Liberal members.

The Liberals oppose outright nationalization but said they would favor the government buying an interest in some branches of the industry.

Wilson may adopt the latter course. He is committed only to "necessary public ownership" of the industry.

This, however, will not be known until his steel bill is published, perhaps next spring. The debate today was on a Conservative amendment regretting steel nationalization and calling it "irrelevant to the modernization of Britain and damaging to the national economy."

The Conservatives brought out Iain MacLeod, one of their fiercest debaters, to lead the assault. He quit the party leadership last November to protest Sir Alec Douglas-Home's backstairs selection as the party's chief. Following the election, he returned to the Conservative shadow Cabinet.

State to Get Clearer Weather

Magnolia Plant To Be Doubled

MAGNOLIA, Ark. (AP)—Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. announced plans here Saturday to double the size of its Magnolia plant — a move officials said may triple plant employment, which now is 65.

Annual payroll of the plant is $200,000 annually.

The expansion, to begin about Jan. 1, will include a 50,000-square foot building. The plant makes fuel cells, boats, water tanks and shock bags for Polaris missiles for the military services.

Cotton Crop Estimate 1.5 Million Bales

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department estimated today Arkansas' 1964 cotton crop at 1,500,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight, up 40,000 bales from the October forecast. The yield per acre was estimated at 620 pounds, compared to 605 reported by the department in October.

The national crop was set at 15,444,000 bales, an increase of 1.1 per cent from the October forecast.

The crop is being grown under a control program designed to prevent overproduction. However, the national crop exceeds forecasts of market needs by 14.8 million bales. Any extra cotton would move into reserves and surpluses totaling 12.1 million bales.

In an accompanying report, the Census Bureau said 9,073,000 running bales of cotton had been ginned to Nov. 1, compared with 10,661,660 to the same date last year.

Figures on running bales ginned were not given for Arkansas. The department said that following a slow start, harvest moved forward rapidly during the last half of October, with yields per acre in most states turning out about the same or slightly higher than indicated a month earlier.

The 1964 yield was set at 528 pounds per acre, topping the 1963 yield of 516 pounds.

Plans Made for Taking Agri Census

Plans for taking the 1964 Census of Agriculture in Hempstead County were announced today by Mrs. Lucy M. Coleman, newly-appointed census crew leader for the county.

The job will be done in three stages, the crew leader said. First will come recruitment and training of enumerators to count all farms in the county. About one enumerator for each 150 farms will be needed.

Shortly after November 18, the Bureau of the Census, an agency of the U. S. Department of Commerce, will start the second stage by mailing agricultural census questionnaires to all rural boxholders in the county. This will give farm and ranch operators, who are required by law to fill out the forms, a period of time to consult their records and fill in answers to the questions.

In the final stage, enumerators will visit each farm in the county to collect the questionnaires. At the time of this visit, the enumerators will help farmers complete answers to any questions the farmers may have had difficulty with. Enumerator visits are scheduled to begin in this county on November 23. Enumerators will take about three weeks to complete their work, the crew leader estimates.

The Census of Agriculture is taken every five years in the years ending in "4" and "9" to gather up-to-date information on the nation's agricultural resources and production. Such information is vital in making decisions affecting many segments of the U. S. economy. Data gathered include the number and size of farms, acreage and harvest of crops, livestock inventory information on farm equipment and facilities, farm products sold, and use of fertilizers, insecticides, and herbicides.

GOPs Canvassing Nevada Votes

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Representatives of the Democratic and Republican national committees are in Nevada today observing a canvass of votes cast in last Tuesday's election for Sen. Howard W. Cannon, seeking re-election, and Republican challenger Paul Laxalt.

Sunday Cannon's lead shrank to 61 votes. The newest total gave him 67,303 votes and Laxalt 67,239.

Cannon had led by 114 votes in the unofficial state tally, but the official canvass in Lander County gave Laxalt 50 votes more than earlier reported.

A recount may be ordered to decide the winner. The official state canvass is Nov. 25 and the deadline for conducting a recount is Dec. 3.

Milwaukee Won't Need It in Writing

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Warren Giles, president of the National League, says Milwaukee County officials do not need anything in writing to insure that the Braves will play in Milwaukee in 1965 as ordered by the league.

"They must not trust us," said Giles Sunday night. "We thought it was a clear cut decision."

At a meeting in Phoenix, Ariz., Saturday, the league gave the Braves permission to move to Atlanta in 1966 but instructed the club to live up to its contract to play all 1965 home games in County Stadium.

County corporation counsel Robert P. Russell said Sunday night he would recommend that the county board obtain a written commitment from the league that the Braves will play in Milwaukee next season before dropping a suit instituted to force compliance with the contract.

When the league decision was announced, county board chairman Eugene Grobschmidt said the county probably would drop its injunction proceedings. But he said later he had been cautioned by attorneys against asking dismissal of the suit. The next hearing is set for Tuesday.

"Dismissal might affect our future negotiations with the Braves," Grobschmidt said without elaborating. Before the Braves said they wanted to move to Atlanta in 1965 the county offered concessions worth $125,000 a year.

"There are no tag ends of any kind," Giles said, "I don't anticipate any further action on the Milwaukee situation."

He said the league's unanimous decision was "the final action that certainly anyone can anticipate."

Braves' board chairman William Bartholomay said, "We are perfectly satisfied with the decision."

"We are going to do the best we can to give the people of Milwaukee the best brand of baseball we are capable of giving. We think we have a club capable of winning the National League pennant."

John McHale, the Braves' president and general manager, said, "Milwaukee is our team and our city in 1965 and we are not giving a thought to what might happen in the future."

The league action was called

Miss Wright Can Bow Out Happily Now

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP) — "I can quit happy now," said Mickey Wright, the blonde queen of women's golf, when she shot a record 62 for 18 holes on the way to winning first money in the Tall City Open Tournament.

She didn't mean she was going to quit for she has some burning ambitions yet unfilled, like setting a record stroke average of 72.00. In fact, she went to San Antonio today to play in the Civitan Open starting Thursday.

Miss Wright was in pursuit of the stroke record Sunday when she shot a 207 for 54 holes, tied Sherry Wheeler for first place, and won a sudden death playoff and first money of $1,350.

Miss Wright bettered the women's record for 18 holes set by Patty Berg at Richmond, Calif., in 1952. Ruth Jessen had a matching 64 in last year's Dallas Civitan Open.

Miss Wright, who plays out of Dallas, ran her winnings for the year to 10 tournaments and $26,365. She is only three tournaments and $5,235 away from the record of 13 victories and $31,600 won last year when she also set a stroke average of 72.81.

The blonde bettered by a "fine development" by Richard Cutler, attorney for a group of Milwaukee businessmen who have offered to buy the Braves from the current owners.

He said the Milwaukee group would "continue its interest," but did not anticipate the Bartholomay group would want to sell. However, Cutler added, "they might change their minds after they have a chance to do some figuring."

He said he respected Goldwater as an individual.

As for Nixon, Romney said: "When you're trying to unify something, you don't begin to say things that will create greater feeling and division. You undertake to include those who are in a position to make a contribution."

The Nixon - Rockefeller exchange had stirred things up in the Republican camp last week. Nixon charged that Rockefeller was a "divider," had not backed Goldwater as Nixon had and had gotten "his pound of flesh." Rockefeller fired back that Nixon was a poor loser and "peevish" in his remarks.

A fellow New York Republican — Sen. Jacob K. Javits — spoke up Sunday night on the Nixon-Rockefeller clash. He told newsmen "I would hope that there would be a full moratorium on all personality clashes."

His comments came as an Associated Press survey showed that many influential leaders in the Republican party were looking to the former vice president to take a leading role in rebuilding the GOP.

Romney, Rockefeller and Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton were also frequently mentioned as prospective leaders of the comeback. Many of those questioned in the AP sur-

1,000 Pounds Lands in Yard

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A parachute carrying an Air Force instrument package, believed to weigh more than 1,000 pounds, dropped into the front yard of the John Dale residence Sunday.

Air Force spokesmen in New Mexico said the parachute was dropped from a 1.6-million-cubic-foot helium balloon during a test flight.

The balloon was launched Friday. The instruments were designed to record pressure, humidity, temperature and other meteorological information.

They suggested that Goldwater give up control of the party machinery after winning only five Southern states and his home state of Arizona last Tuesday.

On the heels of Johnson's landslide victory, several Republicans have suggested that Dean Burch be replaced as Republican national chairman. Gov. Robert E. Smylie of Idaho, head of the National Republican Governors Association, was asked about the suggestion Sunday on the CBS radio-television program "Face the Nation."

He said Burch would have to be replaced "if we are to move into the center of the stream" in the hope of winning elections in 1966 and 1968.

Johnson Is Proud of GOP Work

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW

MOSCOW (AP) — Foreign Communist leaders who came to Moscow to celebrate the 47th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution stayed on today, apparently for Red unity meetings with the new Kremlin leadership.

Official secrecy enveloped the movements of Chinese Premier Chou En-lai and officials from 12 other Communist states but informed sources believed they were discussing problems that have split the Red camp.

Discussion was believed centered on the Kremlin's decision to proceed with ex-Premier Nikita Khrushchev's plan for a December meeting of Red representatives from 26 nations to prepare for a world Communist conference.

Khrushchev had called the meeting to set the stage for a showdown in his bitter dispute with the Chinese. The ousted premier's successors apparently hope to turn it into a harmony discussion.

Soviet party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin were reported giving a dinner tonight for heads of the visiting Red delegations.

Only brief courtesy talks have been reported officially since the Communist chiefs began arriving last week for the anniversary celebration. There were indications, however, that the visitors would stay at least through Tuesday.

French Communist party secretary Georges Marchais, who recently returned home from Moscow, said in Paris the new Soviet leaders told him they are not seeking any ideological compromise with Red China.

Marchais told party members, however, that the Kremlin is anxious to bridge certain differences. He did not specify what they were.

The Communist party paper Pravda in its account of the anniversary celebration omitted the part of Defense Minister Rodion Y. Malinovsky's speech which attacked U.S. Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara.

Malinovsky told a Kremlin reception the Soviets "shall not do as the U.S. defense secretary who threatens to destroy the Soviet Union at any moment."

Following the attack, Kosygin went out of his way to talk with U.S. Ambassador Foy D. Kohler. Diplomats felt that Kosygin was trying to take some of the sting out of Malinovsky's remark.

Brezhnev said in a speech Friday that he believed most Americans want peace.

AEA Wants $20 Million for Teachers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Education Board voted Sunday to ask for a hike of more than $20 million in the Public School Fund to take care of teacher raises promised by Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

It approved a requested budget for the fund of $84,077,394 for the 1965-66 school year, and $500,000 more than that for the next school year. The 1963-64 appropriation was $63,687,500.

Before the request gets to the 1965 General Assembly, Faubus must make his own recommendation to the Legislative Council, which then makes its recommendation to the Legislature.

Faubus said this summer that enough revenue would be available to give public school teachers raises averaging $1,000 to $1,500 a year.

Forrest Rozzell, secretary of the Arkansas Education Association, estimated that $1,000 average raises would cost about $17 million more a year.

Other things included in the request for the increase are raises for Education Department employees, and funds for the Teacher Retirement System, the school transportation system and textbooks.

Law Barring Reds as Union Officials Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to rule on constitutionality of a federal law barring Communists from serving as officials of a labor union.

The ruling was asked by the Justice Department in an appeal from a decision by the U. S. Circuit Court in San Francisco. The Circuit Court said the law constituted an invalid restraint upon freedom of association protected by the Constitution's First Amendment.

With this holding, the Circuit Court overturned conviction of Archie Brown, who was indicted on a charge that he served as a member of the executive board of Local 10, San Francisco, of the International Longshoremen's Union while a member of the Communist party. Brown had been sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

The indictment charged Brown served as a member of the local board from October 1959 up to the date of the indictment on May 24, 1961. The indictment was under a section of the Labor Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959. In ruling the section invalid the Circuit Court divided 5-3.

four strokes the best round ever shot on the 6,070-yard Hogan Park Municipal Course. That was by a man, Pearl Ward, assistant pro at the course, two years ago.

Shirley Englehorn equaled the 66 in the final round Sunday for a 212 total and fifth place in the tournament.

Miss Wheeler had a closing 70 for 207 to tie Miss Wright for first. In the playoff both birdied the first hole, but Miss Wright birdied the second with a two-foot putt while Miss Wheeler two-putted from 15 feet for a par.

Miss Wheeler won $1,070 second money while Kathy Whitworth, who had led into the final round, soared to a 76 and wound up in a tie with Louis Suggs for third with 211.

Is Tobin Rote, a premier starting quarterback for 15 professional seasons, trying to update young Daryle Lamonica as an American Football League super-sub?

Rote, who lost his San Diego starting job four weeks ago to three-year pro John Hadl, bailed out Hadl and the Chargers Sunday with a second-half passing barrage that overhauled stubborn Denver 31-20.

The 36-year-old veteran of three pro leagues — American, National and Canadian — fired two touchdown passes in the second half, carrying the Chargers to their sixth straight victory.

The comeback route almost had become the private domain of Lamonica, Buffalo's sophomore signal-caller, but the Bills' relief pitcher had to settle for a standoff with Rote Sunday despite another clutch performance.

Lamonica came off the bench and directed the Bills to their ninth straight triumph, a 20-7 uphill decision over New York, before a record AFL crowd of 60,300 paid at Shea Stadium. It was the sixth time this season that the Bills, only unbeaten pro club, had come from behind to win with the 23-year-old Notre Dame alum in command.

Lamonica passed 80 yards to Glenn Bass for a touchdown and set up two field goals by Pete Goglak, enabling the Bills to hold their 2 1/2-game Eastern Division lead while virtually killing the Jets' title chances.

The Boston Patriots, who nipped Houston 25-24 Friday night on Gino Cappelletti's last second, 42-yard field goal, are second in the East with a 6-2-1 record and New York is third at 4-3-1.

Another sub quarterback, Kansas City rookie Pete Beathard, made his season debut Sunday in the Chiefs' 42-7 romp over Oakland. After starter Len Dawson had riddled the Raiders with four touchdown passes, Beathard came on, ran for 48 yards in two carries and then threw his first pass. It was intercepted.

The runaway victory pulled the Chiefs even for the year at 4-4-1. They trail defending champion San Diego, 6-2-1, in the Western Division race.

Who Steals My Name . . .

By Clay Richards

Copyright © 1964 by Clay Richards. Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The window in my office looks out over the Hudson River in New York City. I watched a big ocean liner meekly following a tug toward the sea. For a minute I wished I were aboard. Then I turned back to my desk and the pile of work on it. I had just solved two cases but there were 63 more still on my active list.

I'm Blake Morgan, United States Postal Inspector, New York Division. I'm one of several men working on criminal investigations. In other words, if you decide to mail some poisoned chocolates to your rich aunt, don't look over your shoulder; I'll be right behind you. Most of the cases on my desk at the moment were routine small frauds but they still called for a lot of time, paper work and patience.

There was something else on my desk. It was a memo from Inspector-in-Charge John Lane, asking me to see him as soon as I came in.

I looked over the TWX reports that had come in from other divisions, made sure that my work sheet was in order and then, taking it with me, walked down the hall to Lane's office. I opened the door and went into Lane's office. He looked up and smiled. "I see you got my memo."

I nodded. "I wasn't sure what time you'd be in so I asked Betty to put it on your desk." "I spent all morning with the United States attorney," I said. "The Herman and Lessing cases?"

"Yes, I finished both cases yesterday. The lab reports from Washington positively identified Herman's handwriting, and when he was confronted with that he confessed that he was the one who'd taken the Federal Reserve package. Lessing was apprehended in Dallas yesterday and I think we have enough on him to get a conviction."

"Good work. What other cases do you have?" "Only 63 of them," I said with a smile. "There are 28 poison pen cases, 15 minor cases of fraud by mail, eight cases of forgery, three cases of fake medical cures and nine cases of mailbox theft."

"Turn them all over to Anderson," he said. "I've got one case I want you to follow through on." "Something new?" I asked. "Not too new. It started about a month ago. It involves 25 mail box robberies, armed robbery of a post office, the theft of money order blanks, forgery and murder."

"The one uptown?" I asked. He nodded. "That's the one. Betty will give you the file on it as you go out. It's all yours, Blake."

I didn't like the way he said it. "I gather that the file isn't very thick," I said.

He smiled. "It contains everything we know, plus some guesses from Washington."

I nodded and left. I stopped by his secretary's desk, got the file and went back to my office. I gathered up my cases and went to see Anderson.

"I have a little present for you," I said, putting the folders on his desk.

He didn't seem happy to see me. "What's all this?" he asked sourly.

"Sixty-three cases with hundreds of notes. And including some lovely little letters that were sent through the mails. They'll do wonders for your vocabulary."

"I'll bet," he said. He groaned. "And I was just congratulating myself on reducing my cases to six. Why me?"

"It was Lane's idea." "What are you going to be doing?"

"The murder of that postal clerk a few weeks ago."

"All right," he said wearily. "I'll do the work while you go out and make a hero of yourself."

I went back to my own office. I opened the folder and started reading.

The case started with robbery of mailboxes, 25 of them. So far as was known, all that had been stolen each time were government checks and bank statements. The checks had been cashed in various parts of the city. Checks had been forged on most of the accounts where the bank statements had been taken. In one case a payroll check had been forged on the account of the corporation that had sent the check. There was a careful list of the places where the checks had been cashed.

Then came the robbery of a post office, an uptown branch. It had happened in the afternoon and only one clerk was at the windows. The others were in the back where mail was being brought in from the boxes, sorted and sent out again. No one saw the holdup. They heard a shot and by the time they rushed to the front the clerk was dead and the killer gone. With him went a pad of money orders and several stamps.

A couple of days later the money orders began to show up. Most of them were cashed in stores or bars around the city. The last one had turned up a week earlier. The whole operation had lasted about five weeks and checks and money orders totaling about $50,000 had been cashed.

The folder also contained copies of the police reports. They believed that the clerk had been shot in cold blood; he hadn't made a move. He'd been shot once through the throat with a .38 caliber pistol. No one in the neighborhood had seen the killer escaping.

All of the checks and money orders had been examined by our lab men in Washington. They were convinced that all had been the work of the same man. They had narrowed it down to what they thought were the three most likely suspects. The folder contained the pictures and the records of the three men.

The first one was a Michael Shaw. Thirty-five years old. Five feet, seven inches, 150 pounds. Two convictions, one for robbing mailboxes and one for forgery. Now on parole in New York City. Not known ever to have carried a gun.

The next one was David Segal. Thirty-two years old, five feet, eight inches, 170 pounds. One conviction for forgery. On parole for three years. Last address New York City. Never known to carry a gun.

The third one was Richard Emery. Thirty-three years old. Six feet tall, 180 pounds. Three convictions, one in juvenile court. One count of theft from a mailbox, two counts of forgery. At the moment he was out on parole. He was supposed to be living with his parents at an address in the East Eighties in New York City. It was a fashion-

Just Scoring on Arkansas Is Quite a Task

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Writer

Just scoring on Arkansas has become a major accomplishment in Southwest Conference football.

That kind of defense, plus a most versatile offense, will make Arkansas a formidable Cotton Bowl host team, too.

Cotton Bowl folks are delighted with the prospect of having Arkansas to uphold the region and almost everyone is anticipating that it will become a fact next Saturday when Arkansas hosts lowly Southern Methodist.

All Arkansas has to do to get into the Cotton Bowl is beat an SMU team that is in the conference cellar without a conference victory. Texas A&M ended its losing streak at seven straight when it beat the Methodists 23-0 Saturday. SMU now has lost able address. He, also, had never been known to carry a gun. The three of them together, had never stolen as much as $50,000 but the handwriting experts in Washington said that our present man was probably one of them. They were possibly right. They usually were.

By the time I had finished digesting everything that was in the file, it was already late afternoon. There wasn't enough time to start following up, but I had put in a call to the parole office and found out whom I had to see the following day. Although David Segal was no longer on parole, he'd been handled by the same parole officer who was now in charge of Michael Shaw. His name was Bernard Ellis. Emery's parole officer was Martin Nolan. I made appointments to see both of them the next morning.

Arkansas, meanwhile, was registering its third straight shutout by blasting defense-minded Rice 21-0.

It was Arkansas' eighth straight triumph of the season for the fourth-ranked Razorbacks.

Texas stayed in the conference race by beating Baylor 20-14 and the Longhorns are only one game back of Arkansas. Should the Razorbacks lose a game Texas could tie Arkansas for the championship. However, in that event Arkansas still would be the Cotton Bowl host team by virtue of having defeated Texas.

Texas Tech bashed independent West Texas State 48-0 with an awesome show of offensive power while Texas Christian, the other member of the conference, rested last week.

On Saturday Southern Methodist will play at Fayetteville in an effort to stop the Arkansas surge. Rice and Texas A&M meet at Houston and Texas tackles Texas Christian at Fort Worth in conference games.

Two members will be in inter-sectional clashes Baylor playing Kentucky at Lexington and Texas Tech engaging Washington State at Lubbock. These are the last intersec-

Celtics Have Not Been Derailed Yet

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Boston Celtics' championship express hasn't been derailed yet and with 10 straight victories it's headed straight for Recordville.

The Celtics won their ninth and 10th over the weekend and are now just five shy of the record for consecutive victories at the start of the season. The mark is 15 set by Washington in 1948.

Cincinnati, struggling along without Oscar Robertson, was the Celtics' latest victim 106-103 Sunday but the Royals threw quite a scare into the Celts before going down.

Boston held a 24-point margin after three periods but Jerry Lucas, who had 37 points and 28 rebounds, and Bud Olsen, who scored all 15 of his points in the final period, triggered a Royal rally that nearly pulled it out.

Tom Heinsohn saved the Celts with three vital free throws in the final minute to hold Cincinnati off. Sam Jones placed Boston with 26 points and Tom Sanders added 19.

On the West Coast, the San Francisco Warriors took a 70-55 halftime lead and went on to a 130-121 triumph over the New York Knicks.

HOLLYWOOD AP) - The name seems incongruous amid the plush spaciousness of his executive suite. He is production boss of one of television's biggest enterprises - $64 million gross business last year. But he is still called Jackie Cooper.

For six months, the onetime "Skippy" has been functioning as studio head for Screen Gems, the television giant that produces "Hazel," "The Donna Reed Show," "Farmer's Daughter" and the hit of the 1964-65 season, "Bewitched."

"We'll have between six and a dozen pilots ready for submission for next season's shows," Cooper declared. "These are shows in which we have pride. I don't expect all of them to sell, but I think a good proportion might."

He added that one of his missions at Screen Gems has been to diversify its product. Whereas the firm has previously specialized in domestic comedies, Jackie now has projects for half-hour dramas, which he believes will be the new trend, specials-upcoming: Inger Stevens' tour of Sweden-day-time serials on tape, game shows and sports presentations.

The executive turn in Jackie's career is something he had planned, though not in the way it happened.

"I had hoped to head a production firm," he remarked, "but I thought I would probably

Court Refuses to Expedite Rights Case

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Supreme Court denied today a request for an expedited decision on an appeal involving constitutional rights of the public accommodations section of the 1964 Civil Rights Act.

The request was made Oct. 29 by Moreton Rolleston Jr., an Atlanta attorney, who is an official of the Heart of Atlanta Motel.

Rolleston, on Oct. 5, argued before the Supreme Court an appeal by the motel that asked for the overturning of a lower court decision upholding validity of the section.

In a motion mailed to the court after the argument, Rolleston said the issue involved was important in the presidential election campaign, and should be decided before the Nov. 3 election. Rolleston said that Supreme Court Justice Hugo L. Black and Solicitor General Archibald Cox had declared that the case should be decided quickly.

The Supreme Court acted today on numerous cases, but made no mention of the Heart of Atlanta Motel case, other than to merely note that Rolleston's request was denied.

have to build it through my own company, creating two or three shows. The Screen Gems offer was a happy surprise."

The Jackie Cooper saga is a story of how to survive in a changing industry. Most child stars in films never sustain their success as adults—possibly because they try to remain in films.

When there was scant demand for Jackie's services in Hollywood after the war, he went to New York to sharpen his talents on the stage, then in television.

"I didn't want to be the last actor to leave live TV," he said "so I came back here to do a filmed series, 'The People's Choice.' I never enjoyed doing the show, not a single day of it. But it accomplished what I wanted."

"I did enjoy an occasional show of Hennessy," and I liked being on the production end. Now that I'm in this job, I do miss directing now and then. Miss acting? Not a bit.

"I won't say I'll never act again, because that would be a foolish prediction. But after 40 years of it—I started when I was 2 years old—I think I've had my share. There's not much that could lure me back."

The motto "hitch your wagon to a star" was originated by Ralph Waldo Emerson, eminent poet.

Porker Defeat of Rice Is Convincing

By BILL SIMMONS

Associated Press Writer

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks dropped Rice 21-0 in what was mostly a punting duel and tucked away their eighth straight victory here Saturday. Coach Frank Broyles said: "This was the big one."

Alternate tailback Bobby Burnett clinaxed drives with scoring runs of one and five yards, and safety Harry Jones went 35 yards with an intercepted pass for a touchdown in between Burnett's scores.

Jack Braswell, the starting tailback, carried 26 times for 121 yards, fullback Bobby Nix used his kicking foot to counter the booming punts of Rice's Chuck Latourette, and returned specialist Ken Hatfield, whittled down Latourette's punt yardage with returns that kept Arkansas in good field position.

Latourette, a Jonesboro, Ark. product, turned out to be the biggest gainer for the Owls, who otherwise seldom penetrated the Razorback defensive line which Broyles praised highly Sunday.

"This is the quickest defensive line we've had since I've been here," Broyles said.

He also complimented the Razorbacks' offensive line for its quickness, aggressiveness and determination. He particularly cited the blocking of end Jerry Lamb, guard Jerry Jones and wingback Jim Lindsey—who cleared the way for Braswell's runs.

Broyles said he worried more about the Rice game than any other game this year.

"I really wanted this ball game, and the squad did too," Broyles said.

He said that after the victory over Texas A&M he chided his offensive line which, he said Sunday, did a good job in the first half against the Aggies, but slackened off in the second half.

"I told them they should be embarrassed," Broyles said. "I reminded them of it every day because I was worried about this Rice team. I told them that if we were going to go 10-0, they were going to have to do better than that. So Saturday they really got after them."

Arkansas also won the 1963 finale for a record winning streak of nine games, and Broyles was asked about the possibility that the Razorbacks might be overconfident about next Saturday's foe — Southern Methodist University.

"I don't believe complacency will set in," Broyles said. "After all SMU beat us 14-7 last year. They almost did it in 1962 against a great Arkansas team that had to come from behind to win that one."

"SMU had got a tenacious defense and great quickness and they use a blitzing seven — or eight — man line almost every play," Broyles said.

"They really gamble on defense," he said. "In the last three years Texas has only beaten SMU 7-0, 14-7 and 6-0, and in the last two years Arkansas has only scored two touchdowns on SMU. That's only one a year."

AM&N Victim of Grambling

GRAMBLING, La. (AP) — Grambling College raced away with a 39-0 victory over Arkansas AM&N Saturday. Willie Williams and Henry Dyer each scored two touchdowns. Grambling's powerful offense rolled up 356 yards total offense to beat 161 for Arkansas AM&N.

Tech Comes From Behind for Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas Tech came from behind to down stubborn Ouachita 13-3 Saturday and assured itself of at least a tie for the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference football championship.

In other AIC action, Henderson defeated Harding 20-6; Arkansas A&M crushed College of the Ozarks, 35-0 and Southern State fell to Austin College, 27-13.

The Tech victory left the Wonder Boys with a 6-0 record in the AIC and one game ahead of Arkansas A&M which stands at 5-1 in conference play.

Only Harding with a 2-7 season record stands in the way of Tech claiming outright title to the AIC crown. Tech meets Harding Saturday.

Ouachita scored first when Halfback Robert McGlothlin booted a 31-yard field goal after a drive from the Ouachita 40 stalled on the Tech 14.

Tech went ahead on an 86-yard punt return for a touchdown by freshman halfback Jerry Lawrence then scored again after recovering an Ouachita fumble on the Ouachita 24.

The Weevils got one touchdown each in the first, third and fourth quarters and had two in the second, all of which were scored on or set up by long runs.

Ozarks penetrated to the A&M six in the final period but a pass interception stopped the threat.

Henderson scored on drives of 54 yards, 49 yards and 57 yards while holding Harding to one long drive of 97 in a game at Arkadelphia.

The Reddies scored first on a two-yard plunge which capped

Conway Rated Top Team in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Someone finally scored on Conway's first team, but the Wampus Cats probably made Morrilton sorry it crossed the goal on the state's top rated high school football team. Final score: Conway 54, Morrilton 6. Conway's Oct. 30 victory over Little Rock Central put the Class 3-AA West team into No. 1 in the Associated Press poll of top sportswriters and broadcasters, and the convincing lacing of Morrilton kept it that way.

Other teams in the top ten, in order are Little Rock Hall, Little Rock Central, Texarkana, Pine Bluff, Little Rock Catholic, North Little Rock, Fort Smith Northside, Stuttgart and Rogers.

Hall, Central and Texarkana held onto spots they had in last week's poll. The Warriors had the week off, Central and North Little Rock fought to a 0-0 tie, and Texarkana beat Jonesboro 20-0.

Pine Bluff, also idle, moved into fifth from seventh and Catholic dropped one spot to sixth although the Rockets beat Russellville 6-3.

North Little Rock moved up to seventh after the tie with the Tigers; Fort Smith Northside moved back into the top ten at eighth on a 33-21 triumph over Hot Springs; Stuttgart remained at ninth with a 35-0 victory over Marianna and Rogers dropped two positions to tenth, despite winning 13-6 over Van Buren.

Thinks Irish, Alabama Prize Bowl Choices

By WILL GRIMSLEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
Notre Dame vs. Alabama — this is beginning to look like the prize post-season bowl package, but the question is: Who's going to get it?

Sponsors of both the Orange and Sugar bowls are drooling at the mouth just thinking about such a pairing but realize a lot of intricate pieces first must be fitted into the jigsaw to make it possible.

Both Notre Dame and Alabama face perhaps their most critical tests this week. The Irish are host to a rebounding Michigan State team which hasn't lost to the South Benders in 10 years. Alabama goes against a tough and bitter rival, Georgia Tech, at Atlanta.

If the two survive, they might well finish 1-2 in the national standings. Notre Dame sources have indicated the Irish might abandon their long-time anti-bowl policy if a national title situation came about.

The Orange and Sugar bowls apparently are the only ones with a chance of landing such a glamor game. They have no strings, whereas both the Rose and Cotton bowls are bound by conference commitments.

Notre Dame and Alabama saw their hopes for a national title strengthened Saturday when second-ranked Ohio State absorbed a staggering 27-0 beating at the hands of Penn State, a team that had lost four games.

Four other members of the Top Ten — Georgia Tech, Louisiana State, Florida and Purdue — also lost, narrowing the list of championship candidates and hot bowl prospects.

Only five major teams were left with unbeaten or duntied records. Besides Notre Dame and Alabama, these include Arkansas, Nebraska and Princeton.

The top-ranked Fighting Irish, 17-point favorites, had a close call against big, powerful Pittsburgh and won by the margin of Joe Azzaro's 30-yard field goal in the second period 17-5. Pitt

Felix R. McKnight, selection chairman of the Jan. 1 postseason game, said there weren't likely to be many undefeated, untied teams left at the finish anyway and that the Cotton Bowl wasn't going to hold a loss against the teams listed as prospects, considering the abundance of college football.

Alabama, Nebraska, Georgia Tech, Louisiana State, Florida and Notre Dame, despite the latter's indication that it wouldn't lift its bowl ban, make up the Cotton Bowl's list. Alabama, Nebraska and Notre Dame are unbeaten.

Saturday Cotton Bowl representatives will scout three games involving four of these teams — Alabama vs. Georgia Tech, Notre Dame vs. Michigan State and Nebraska vs. Oklahoma State.

Just which of the six teams the Cotton Bowl is leaning toward, if any, was not revealed. Three of them — Alabama, Georgia Tech and Louisiana State — have appeared in the Cotton Bowl before.

The Southwest Conference champion or representative is automatically the host team and there are strong indications that it will be known Saturday.

Arkansas, unbeaten and untied leader of the conference, can clinch the Cotton Bowl spot by beating Southern Methodist, a team that's winless in the conference.
